

REMARKS

This is a divisional application of co-pending application Serial No. 09/886,741, filed June 21, 2001, entitled "Multi-Die Module and Method Thereof."

Applicant respectfully requests that this preliminary amendment be entered prior to examination.

As a preliminary matter, Applicant respectfully requests that all references in the co-pending case (Ser. No. 09/612,721) be reviewed and cited in the present case.

Applicants include herein, copies of the following documents as filed with the co-pending application identified above: executed oath, power of attorney and change of address form.

Applicants note that in an Office Action, regarding the above identified co-pending application, mailed March 12, 2002, the Examiner noted that claims 27-40 were drawn to a method classified in class 438, subclass 1+. The status of the above identified co-pending application is that it is pending having had an RCE submitted on February 13, 2003.

Applicants, herein respectfully submit changes to the specification as originally filed in the above identified co-pending application. Such changes reflect the same specification changes that were previously submitted and entered in the above identified co-pending application. As identified above, a number of replacement paragraphs have been proposed to more precisely describe Applicants' claimed subject matter. Applicants submit that such replacement paragraphs do not constitute new matter under 37 C.F.R. 1.121, as such paragraphs are otherwise fully supported by the original specification, original figures and/or the original claims of the co-pending application as filed on June 21, 2001.

Applicants request that informal drawings sheets 1/5, 2/5 and 3/5 be replaced with the enclosed formal drawing sheets 1/5, 2/5 and 3/5. Further, Applicants also herein respectfully submit replacement drawings in place of the originally filed drawings in the above identified co-pending application. As identified above, originally filed FIGS. 1, 4, 5 and 9 are to be replaced with replacement drawings FIGS. 1, 4, 5 and 9 respectively. Applicants submit that such replacement drawings FIG. 1, 4, 5 and 9 do not constitute new matter under 37 C.F.R. 1.121, as the proposed replacement drawings are otherwise fully supported by the original specification, original figures and/or the original claims of the co-pending application as filed on June 21, 2001.

Therefore, Applicants respectfully request the Examiner to enter the Preliminary Amendment, accepting the replacement paragraphs, new claims, 41-45, and formal drawings, FIGS. 1, 4, 5 and 9, in accordance with the specification, claims and drawings of the present application, as originally filed in the above identified co-pending application.

It is respectfully submitted that the present application is now in correct form for proper examination. As such, Applicants respectfully request the entrance of the present Preliminary Amendment and the examination of Claims 27-45. A Notice of Allowance and the passage of the claims to issuance is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 7-9-03
